The transfer of Shares is subject to all the limitations and restrictions contained in the Company's Charter and Bylaws, including compliance with applicable state and federal securities and tax laws.
2 "Blue Sky" Law	No transfer or assignment of any Shares shall be made if counsel for the Company is of the opinion that such transfer or assignment would be in violation of any state securities or "Blue Sky" laws (including investment suitability standards) applicable to the Company. If this would be the case as a result of this transfer, the Company will return this form and advise you of the reason that the transfer is void.

In addition, upon the occurrence of certain events, attempted Transfers in violation of the restrictions described above may be void. All capitalized terms in this paragraph have the meanings defined in the charter of the Company, as the same may be amended from time to time, a copy of which, including the restrictions on Transfer and ownership, will be furnished to each holder or prospective holder of Equity Shares of the Company on request and without charge.
4 Suitability Standards	The interest being acquired by the Transferee and retained by the Transferor, if any, must be at least the minimum number of Common Stock required under "Suitability Standards" in the Prospectus unless such transfer is made by gift, inheritance, intra-family transfer, family dissolution, operation of law, or to affiliates.
